Dover Man Arrested on Child Pornography Charges

Dover – Attorney General Beau Biden announced today that the Delaware Child Predator Task Force arrested a Dover man following a proactive undercover investigation into the distribution of child pornography online. Kenneth J. Zera, Jr., age 20, was arrested yesterday on multiple counts of dealing in child pornography following the execution of a search warrant at his residence by Task Force personnel, along with detectives and a Trooper from Delaware State Police Troop #3 and federal law enforcement officials.

“This arrest demonstrates that our use of state-of-the-art technology, training, and hands-on collaboration with local, state, and federal law enforcement produces real results for the safety of Delaware’s children,” Attorney General Biden said.

The Task Force investigation led to a residence at 15 W. Lebanon Road, Dover and a search warrant was obtained for that location. When the warrant was executed yesterday investigators seized multiple computers and other related digital evidence. As a result of the investigation and an initial forensic review of the evidence seized, Zera was arrested and charged with 20 counts of dealing in child pornography. He was video arraigned at Court #2 and was committed to James T. Vaughn Correctional Center in lieu of $600,000 secured bail.

A mugshot of Zera is available upon request.
